II.	Public Comments	None
III.	Business
	A. Junkyard Licensing Fees	Presented: Loaded hourly rate per Twp. employee. Zoning Officer Allocation of Time Twp. Office Assistant Allocation of Time Treasurer Allocation of Time	Zoning Officer will track time it takes to do Junk Yard inspections this year. Adjustment for fees will be discussed at the Supervisors Jan. Organization meeting.
	B. Personnel	Sheri Moyer has completed her training and is now a notary. Her services will be offered free of charge to Twp. residents.	Mr. Updyke moved, seconded by Mr. Gearhart to increase Sheri Moyer's hourly rate by $1.00. Motion carried unanimously.
	C. EMS Coverage for MJT	As of 6/1/13, Barlow EMS will no longer exist. Gettysburg and Littlestown Fire Companies are the only 2 EMS serving Mt. Joy residents. Mr. Gormont met with Alan Baldwin, Chief of Gettysburg Fire Co. to discuss re-routing response calls and was informed that Call Boxes will be redone.
	D. Traffic Signal Permit Mylar, Balto. Pike and Heritage Dr.	Letter presented from Grove Miller Engineering, Inc., dated 6/4/13. PennDot has requested timing change for traffic signals at the intersection of Baltimore Pike and Heritage Dr. and has approved revisions to the traffic signal permit plan.	The Supervisors acknowledge that the Twp. is aware of the traffic signal timing changes and has no issues with the changes and agrees that Mr.

			Gormont should sign the traffic signal permit plan. No identification is stated on the plan for the permittee, and who is responsible for all road signs and markings.	Zoning Officer will investigate.
	E. Comprehensive Plan – Rte. 97 Corridor	Supervisors reviewed each section of revised Comprehensive Plan.	Supervisors to review edited version. Meetings will then be scheduled for the public to discuss changes. Next step is to look at zoning and ordinances to comply with changes to Comprehensive Plan.
IV.	Correspondence	Susan Smith's Letter dated 5/30/13 to Littlestown Borough regarding Worker's Compensation Policy Premium. Littlestown has failed to acknowledge receipt of either of the 2 letters sent.	Supervisors will wait until Twp. hears from Littlestown Borough before any action will be taken.
IV.	Other Business
	A. 4 way stop at Patterson, Sullivan and White Church Rds.	Twp. engineer letter received stating there is no justification for a 4 way stop at this intersection and providing documentation of support for the removal of the stop signs on White Church Rd.
V.	Adjournment	With no further business to be discussed by the Board, the meeting was adjourned at 8:34 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Susan C. Harbin
Secretary/Treasurer
