Old Business - None

New Business:

Dale Elkiss - Move here about 1 ½ years ago to help in-laws. Wants to have a Christmas tree farm. SEO getting a back-up system for the second house. Planning Commission said they didn't think subdividing was necessary, but recommended checking with the engineer. Moul suggested contacting the engineer and SEO and having them put on paper their feelings about this and then the supervisors will evaluate.

Vacuum cleaner - Approval was given to purchase a shop vac.

Public Comments:

Mr. Crowe - Inquired as to the status of the Parker Furr subdivision. It is in the hands of DEP.

Ellen Dayhoff - Wasn't at the last meeting but heard comments. Regarding the $55,000 budget, it was alluded that she had much of this as salary; $17,5000 was her salary in 1995. Father-in-law spent money and her husband spent time on the cemetery. Wonders who will take care of the cemetery when they are gone; doesn't want their work to be done for nothing. Beebe called Sam, who had taken the comments as a personal attack on his family, and said it was not meant that way, please accept apology. Simply said community has been good to the Dayhoffs and Twp. will take care of the road. Dayhoff said that they ask for the road to be paved or the road to the cemetery, but thought maybe a paved road would cut down on vandalism. Feels it is time to do something for the cemetery before it gets out of hand. Beebe says the cemetery is on private property. Wonders of article in newspaper was to embarrass Mr. Moul and himself. Has no quarrel with the Twp. trying to help care for the cemetery. Moul says it is time to put the cemetery to rest. Twp. will do as the court instructs.

Tim Brown - A zoning hearing was schedule; he didn't receive but a couple days notice.

Randy Van Syock - Valley Quarries re: holding tank situation. Moul says SEO will make the final decision. Dayhoff suggests giving a call to Picarelli. Eileen Holmes - Questioned if three supervisors approved the minutes. Thinks outburst should be included.

Meeting adjourned at 11:25 a.m.

Respectfully submitted, Bonnie L. Koontz, secretary.
