Roads for storm water in Garrison Falls In the 2003 NID Plan there is a construction schedule with a statement that the construction schedule is preliminary and may be revised. Basically, there is no certain time frame for the completion of improvements of items listed in the 2003 NID Plan.  Elizabeth lbex Mrs. lbex requested an explanation of the bond and the effects of this bond on the rest of the Twp residents. Solicitor's response: The bond is a funding mechanism that has been set up by the state allowing a municipality to be the framework for a financing mechanism for public improvements. The Twp is issuing a non-electoral debt, which is not counted against the Twp debt capacity. This is not an obligation that rests with any other parties outside of the improvement areas. The Links NID are the only properties that will be affected by this bond. The cost expended to perform the improvements psecial assessments, assessed against the benefited properties in The Links. There is no obligation or burden on the Twp to complete the work if it is not complete by The Links.
